CITIZENS WILL PROTEST

THE meeting called for this evening at the Nevada theater should be attended by every man who has the welfare of the camp at heart. The trouble has passed the stage where it can be accepted as a personal assault, for it carries with it the implied threat against the life and person of every man, woman and child in the community who has the courage to stand up and protest against the most despicable conduct taken by the profiteers imported from the bottom of the coast. They are the worst form of pest and the continued presence of this noisy throng means nothing more than a perpetual menace to the safety of the people of Tonopah or anywhere else they may be tolerated. The L. W. W. has done more to injure organized labor than all the influences of capital or the advocacy of the open shop. The Bonanza has always been a staunch supporter of union labor and has stood through thick and thin for every effort calculated to promote the advancement of conditions in all branches of industrial life. The Bonanza has paid the highest union wages when other business men of Tonopah were boasting of the fact that they were sending printing to price cutters in other cities. In the hour of distress, when the manager of the Bonanza emerged from the fire of two years ago with but fifteen cents in his pocket he lost no time in reorganizing his forces along the same old lines of unionism with union wages and union employees in every department of this office.

The L. W. W. is not only a standing menace to the prosperity of union labor, but to the prosperity of every branch of business. The destructive tendencies of the order have been exemplified too frequently to call for further comment and all that remains is for the business men to rally to this meeting and go or remain with a set of resolutions stamped with determination and marked in protest against the latest outrage of a pack of scurvy assassins.

Remember it is this evening. The place is the Nevada theater on Brougher avenue, which has been tendered free of all charge by the public-spirited proprietors as a personal contribution to the movement against anarchy and red flagism. The time is eight o'clock.

EFFECT OF WAR TAXES.

IT is an ill wind that blows nobody any good and now the Democratic party is trying to hold up a bad cause by ascribing all evils of the administration to war measures in Europe. That may be all right, but the stench from that rotten pork barrel cannot be excluded from the nostrils of voters who think there is no reason for levying $100,000,000 to defray war expenses of a nation that is at peace with the world. In the course of a succinct review of the agitation for a war tax Collier's takes pains to set forth that one of the most eager bidders for a war tax is the senator from South Carolina, whose district is clamoring for ever improvements aggregating $20,000,000. Most of this money would go to improve a lot of bayous and sloughs which no one ever heard of as navigable streams. Of course the money is to come out of the war tax and the war tax is nothing more than a delusion foisted on voters to make them think they are suffering from hostilities elsewhere. The Pork Bar'l is nothing more than a measure to appease the gluttonous appetites of political warmongers and the scandal will drive a nail in the coffin of the party. The Wilson administration has been the chief critic of the billion dollar Republican congress, but no Republican administration approximated the extravagance and waste of the Wilson term in the White House. While all others are devising ways and means of curtailing expenses the Democrats appear satisfied with inventing new ways of spending money.

"The Corrupt Candidates' Act," so aptly described by the State Press association, is an evocative creation of Judge Coleman to circumvent the efforts of Nevada publishers from deriving revenue from the campaign. For instance, a candidate can spend a fortune subsidizing the outside press and deliver copies of papers from outside Nevada to his constituents and not be held accountable for the expenditure.

The kaiser has a keen nose for publicity and his latest venture is the publication of a weekly paper in New York known as "Fatherland," designed to offset the strong sentiment against Germany cultivated by France and Great Britain. Yet there are lots of pinheads who never at the value of advertising.

It is a glorious commentary on the good sense of the country that congress is going to bisect the river and harbor bill, known as the pork bar'l appropriation. Incidentally it may be remarked that Senator Newlands is chairman of the committee that has always sponsored this enormous waste of public funds.

Dark Lantern Dick, chairman of the board of county commissioners, says lightning never strikes twice in the same place, therefore there is no use for special precautions against a repetition of the outrage on the Bonanza Tuesday morning.

NEW RACE ESKIMOS FOUND WITH STONE AND METAL DISHES

RETURN OF A LITTLE SCHOONER WITH NEWS FROM THE FAR NORTH.

(By Associated Press)

TONOPAH, Sept. 23.—After skirting the Arctic coast of Canada farther eastward than any other ship, the 12-ton wooden gondola schooner Teddy Bear arrived from a hunting and trading expedition that lasted five years. A shortage of gasoline prevented returning the northwest passage for Hudson Bay. Captain Bertram, with John Sanderson, had at Belcher creek. Sanderson was taken to death. The Twenty Bear explored Canadian golf shores along which live the毛毛人 (Mao-mao). Eskimos. He left the Northwest in 1911 and met Eskimos who had never seen white men before. They use stone and copper weapons and making pipes.

WOULD DUST McKAY AS A CANDIDATE

Deserted afternoon, Senator Newlands asked for a vote of censure in the upper house to prevent Secretary of State Brandeis from advancing the nomination to check the name of H. E. McKinley as a candidate for attorney-general. The vote is asked for on the alleged grounds that Mr. McKinley is not qualified with the primary election law in filing his statement of expenses with the secretary of state.—Carson News.

GERMANY TREATS BELGIUM AS ONE OF HER PROVINCES

(By Associated Press Service) BERLIN, Sept. 23.—German troops will remain in Belgium until the end of the war was officially announced, but no regular army numbers, under German administration, will remain so.

A store sale advertisement must be a store of values—or of "harpers"—or the advertiser would not pay.

Mother Stanislus Tells of Recovery

Disputed threat reveals, and continues enough and ends, after weeks the system. Discreet reports of revolution brought about by Bolsheviks' influence.

CHICAGO, Sept. 23.—"Gentlemen, in February, 1911, your doctors examined my throat and pronounced it normal. I have since had a sore throat, but I have not been to any doctor for a year. I am still here, and I am not well. I was restored to perfect health. I would like them to see me again, and I would say it is disgraceful." MOTHER STANISLUS.

Bolshie's alternative is most offensive to American citizens and one that would affect our system. Pending its final decision, we hope to continue our efforts to keep the country out of the war.
